

Rubric - Daa Yin Du

English

1. Clear

1. Is the meaning of the text clear?

- 1. Is the meaning of the text clear?*
- 2. Can a first reader understand easily?*
- 3. Can the audience understand easily?*
- 4. Will a listener say that is right?*

2. Key words

1. Key words are essential words in a verse or the whole paragraph

- 1. How many key words are there?*
- 2. What does the word mean?*
- 3. Is this word in the original text?*

3. Accuracy of grammar

1. A sentence that is written according to fixed rules is called grammatical sentence

- 1. Who said this?*
- 2. What does it mean?*
- 3. Whom did he tell?*
- 4. How did it happen?*

4. Expert in mother tongue

1. A person who can read and write in his or her mother tongue is called a mother tongue translator

5. Concise words

1. A sentence which is composed of a short and clear words without putting unnecessary words is called a concise sentence

6. Burmese literacy

1. A person who can understand Burmese literature is called one in Burmese

7. Common script

1. The script that is accepted and used by most of the language group is called the common script

8. Accuracy of spelling

1. Spelling is composed of alphabets. We have to write it without any mistakes

9. Literacy genre correct

1. Expressing the past or events with songs and poem and then expressing a living one's life style in perspective is called genre

10. Reliability of history

1. Names, places and times are essential for telling it is the true story